

RETREAT RULES AND REGULATIONS

Alcohol and drugs: During the retreat you will not need any form of outside stimulation. Use of drugs or alcohol will not be tolerated. If you brought something with you, please give it to a team member so they can dispose of it. Retreatants showing evidence of having or using these substances will be sent home immediately. No questions asked.

Room restrictions: Girls are never allowed in the boys' rooms or boys in the girls' rooms. Likewise, no one is to leave the lodge after lights out. Anyone breaking these rules will be sent home.

Safety Devices: Tampering with fire extinguishers, fire alarm boxes or smoke detectors carries a fine.

Meals: Mealtimes for all groups are:

Breakfast: 8:00 a.m.    Lunch: 12:00 noon    Dinner: 5:00 p.m.

Off-Limits: Our group is restricted to the areas of the buildings and grounds reserved for our use.

Damage: Please report any damage done to the building or property. We will be held financially responsible for the damage only if it is evident that it is the result of rowdiness or vandalism.

Consideration: We expect respect for and cooperation with the adult leaders who are giving their time to be with you on this retreat. We expect you to be respectful of the rights and needs of your fellow retreatants, especially their need for a good night's sleep. We expect respect for the other users and occupants of the buildings and for the neighbors, especially after 11 p.m. We expect respect for the building and property. Please do not litter the outside grounds with candy wrappers and soda cans.

Trust: Have trust in the team and in one another. Try your best to drop any stereotypes you may have. They keep you from being open to the uniqueness and specialness of others. If you come with openness and a real effort to participate in each activity, you will be pleased with how you feel by the end of the retreat.
